The Wise Old Owl

A wise old owl lived in an oak;

The more he saw, the less he spoke;

The less he spoke, the more he heard.

Why can't we all be like that wise old owl?

Answer.

We cannot be like the wise old owl because he is an experienced fellow who has grown old and has seen the world more than us. He is a good listener and speaks less. He has the ability to analyse situations, which makes him a wise fellow.

Picture story

Look at the pictures and tell a story about The Talkative Tortoise.

A tale from the Panchtantra

Answer.

The tale is about three good friends – two birds and a tortoise. The tortoise was a talkative fellow. One fine day all three of them decided to explore a new place. As the tortoise walks very slowly, the birds decided to take him with the help of a long wooden stick. They asked the tortoise to hold the stick with his mouth, and they would carry him by holding it. Soon the birds started flying, holding the stick from both ends. Suddenly, the talkative tortoise opened his mouth to talk to his friends. Unfortunately, he lost his grip and fell directly to the ground and died. The two birds were shocked to see their tortoise friend fall to his death.

Unit 10 Story

The Grasshopper and the Ant

(EXERCISE-10.2)

Reading is fun

1. How did the grasshopper spend his days?

Answer. The grasshopper spent his days in an idle manner by singing songs all day and playing in the warm sunshine.

2. Did the grasshopper find food in winter?

Answer. No, the grasshopper could not find food to eat in winter. There was no grass, no flowers or leaves to eat, and not even the tiniest fly or worm was to be seen.

3. What did the ant tell the grasshopper when he asked for food?

Answer. The ant told the grasshopper that he had spent his time lazily during summer without saving a single grain for the cold season. She further added that it was time he should suffer for not saving food for the winter season and slammed her door shut.

Let's talk

1. If you were asked to store things for the winter what would you store?

Name any three things.

Answer. I would like to store warm clothes like sweaters, jackets and socks for the winter season.

2. Which season do you like the best?

Answer. I like the winter season the best.

3. Tell the class the story of the grasshopper and the ant in your own language.
